MANIFESTO

Developing the human dimension of companies

We aim at maintaining, restoring and developing the human dimension within companies recognizing that what makes a company unique is the way how humans work together and attractiveness is a must to be successful. We believe that a good management of human resources is a key element for competitiveness.

Valuing European Social Models

We value European social models, want to contribute through cross-fertilization to the emergence of social norms in Europe and believe that this is a key contribution to global governance.

Anticipating

We believe that the best way to deal with human questions – in particular for education and training – is to anticipate issues and address them in a transparent manner.

Promoting social dialog

We promote social dialog as a way to innovate and to solve problems. Therefore, we respect unions and employee representatives and value their contribution to the economy.

Welcoming youngsters

We want to endorse full responsibility to address the key issue of the entrance of youngsters into the labour market.

Contributing to Welfare Policies

We want to contribute to the definition of new welfare policies in Europe as well as the emergence of new regulations to ensure that financing is not the only aim.

Leveraging corporate Social Responsibility

We endorse the concept of CSR and recognize the key role of companies' vis-à-vis the society and the rest of the world as a place to learn "living together".
